The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, July 25. 1722.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by Tobias Jenkins, and William Garforth, Eſqs; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Burlington Lord Lieutenant of the Weſt Riding of the County of York, and of the Ainſty of the City of York.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to approach the Throne with the Offer of our Lives and Properties in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; an Offer, which for our own Sakes we moſt gladly make, by being fully ſatisfied, that if the latter are not ſecured, the former muſt be loſt. A Truth which the many and unſucceſsful Diſturbances, occaſioned to your Majeſty by a profeſſed Popiſh, and the more dangerous pretended Proteſtant Faction, have long ſince convinced us of, and what by their continued Attempts againſt the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, they ſtill evidently declare to the World, that our Church cannot be deſtroyed whilſt your Majeſty is its Head, nor our Liberties or Properties infringed if your Majeſty is on the Throne. Ends not now to be obtained but under a Popiſh Pretender.

When we recollect the repeated Acts of Grace and Mercy vouchſafed by your Majeſty to your Enemies, in Return for their repeated Treaſons and Rebellions, we cannot but with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Contempt look down on them, whom neither the Principles of Oaths or Protection can oblige, nor thoſe of Gratitude induce to be quiet; and muſt at the ſame time admire the unparalell'd Goodneſs in your Majeſty, ſtill to forgive thoſe very Perſons who ſtill rebel; Rebels, whoſe vain Attempts do moſt effectually ſerve to proclaim their own Shame and your Majeſty's Glory, which at this Time they afford us a freſh Inſtance of admiring, by ſhewing us, that your Majeſty can with as equal Wiſdom teach your Councils now to prevent, as you have lately done your Arms to ſuppreſs their Rebellions.

That your Majeſty may long live to perpetuate thoſe Bleſſings to us which we now enjoy; to preſerve which, we your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects ſhall judge no Hazards or Dangers great, whilſt Liberty and your Royal Poſterity ſhall be our Reward.

Madrid, July 7. It is ſtill diſcourſed that a conſiderable Reform will be made in the Land-Forces, and that the Naval will be augmented. Conſiderable Sums are ſent to ſeveral Ports for fitting out Men of War. It is reported, that the Court is reſolved to lay new Impoſts on the People, and to make uſe of the Silver which is expected to come by the next Galeons belonging to private Traders, who are to be allowed a reaſonable Intereſt for the ſame.

Cadiz, July 7. Don Joſeph Patino the Superintendant ſet out from hence Yeſterday for Madrid. The Indigo belonging to the Britiſh South-Sea Company, which was ſeized at the breaking out of the late War with Spain, is now put into the Poſſeſſion of the Agents of that Company here, who have ſhipped off Part of it for England. There are no warlike Preparations making here, but all is in perfect Peace and Quiet; and we have the good Proſpect of a moſt plentiful Harveſt.

Hambourg, July 21. 'By the laſt Letters from 'Vienna the News concerning the King of Perſia's 'being taken Priſoner with his Son near Babylon, 'and that the Chief Rebel Miri-Weis had cauſed 'their Eyes to be put out, is not confirmed; it is 'certain there is a new Party of the Rebels formed 'which abſolutely refuſes to acknowledge Miri-Weis for their Monarch, and will have no other 'Sovereign except the King of Perſia's youngeſt 'Son. It is ſaid, that ſome interceſſory Letters 'are arrived at Copenhagen in favour of Count 'Ravenſlaw, but his Affair, it is not doubted will 'be decided by the ordinary Courſe of Juſtice; 'and in a few Days the Fiſcal Officer is to deliver 'the Articles againſt him to the Judges.

Hague, July 28. 'Count Staremberg went this 'Morning to Helvoetſluys, where the Yacht lies 'that is to carry him to Great-Britain, and he intends to imbark as ſoon as the Wind turns fair. 'M. Colſter, the States late Ambaſſadour at the 'Court of Spain, is expected here in a Day or two; 'ſeveral Perſons are making Intereſt to ſucceed to 'that Embaſſy. Advice is received here of the 'Dutch Squadron being arrived at Cadiz, having 'on its Paſſage thither taken an Algerine Rover, 'and another of Sallee, and that the Spaniſh Squadron was put to Sea, with Orders to cruize a-'gainſt the Algerines.

Bruſſels, July 22. 'Meſſrs. Spierinckſhoeck and 'Vander Duſſen, Deputies of the States of Holland, arrived here on board their Yacht, in order 'to view the Dutch Troops garriſoned in the 'Towns along the Meuſe: They were introduced 'the next Day by M. Peſters the States Reſident, 'to the Marqueſs de Prié, who gave them an 'handſome Reception, and a noble Entertainment 'at Dinner; and on the 20th Inſtant M. Peſters 'treated the Marqueſs and the States Deputies 'with ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction at his Country 'Houſe. At Night the whole Company were regaled on board the fine Yacht belonging to the 'Deputies, and Yeſterday Morning they ſet out for 'Namur. The Anniverſary Proceſſion of the Miraculous Hoſt was performed on Sunday laſt in 'the accuſtomed Manner, attended by all the Religious Orders, and Companies of Tradeſmen 'with their different Enſigns and Liveries, Councellours and Magiſtrates, four mitred Abbots, and 'the Biſhop of Ipres who officiated pontifically; 'the whole Garriſon was under Arms, and the 'Proceſſion marched between two Lines of the 'Infantry. Laſt Week a double Murther was committed at Mechlin upon a Man and his Wife, by 'a Maſon of their Acquaintance who attempted 'to rob them. The Criminal fled to Liere a City 'of Brabant, but was there apprehended; and the 'Man being not quite dead, the Magiſtrates of 'Mechlin, which is a ſmall Province diſtinct from 'Brabant, requeſted that the Priſoner might be 'brought and confronted with the dying Man at 'Mechlin; thoſe of Liere made ſome Difficulties

'to

‘ to this at first, but at length have delivered him ‘ up, pursuant to a particular Agreement made be- ‘ tween the Magistrates of the two Provinces. To- ‘ day Divine Service was performed in the Syriac ‘ Tongue at the Church of our Lady of Good ‘ Help, by two Monks of Mount Lebanon, who ‘ have travelled thus far to beg Alms towards re- ‘ building their Church, ruined by the great Snows ‘ in those Parts.

Paris, July 29. We have Advice that the Turks have appeared in the Channel of Malta with 12 Sultanas, eight other lesser Vessels for War, and 30 Transports, which are said to have on Board 8000 Janizaries: One of the Sultanas put into Syracusa to take in fresh Water; the Officer who commanded her assured the Governour of that Place, that they had no Design upon any Part of the Dominions of the Emperour, or of the Republick of Venice, this Expedition being solely intended against the Corsairs of Malta.

The Famous GOLDEN ESSENCE for the Hair of the Head and Perriwigs; being the most charming Perfume in Nature, and the greatest Preserver of the Hair in the World, for it causes that of Perriwigs to retain its Beauty, Strength, and Curl as long again as usual, and certainly keeps fair Hair from changing Colour, makes the Hair of the Head of Ladies and others, become incomparable fine and handsome, and immediately causes it to grow thick to Admiration, even upon Places that are bald by sickness; it assuredly changes red Hair to a fine pale Colour, and by its delicious Fragrancy enlivens all the Animal Faculties to a Miracle. It also perfumes Handkerchiefs excellently, and is now exceedingly esteemed by the prime Quality of both Sexes. To be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, near Arundel street End. Price 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Great CARMINATIVE,

A most Famous TINCTURE for the Wind-Cholick, in what Part soever lodg'd; for at once taking, in five Minutes Time, it perfectly cures the severest Gripings in the Guts, and also immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels, (as it were) to a Miracle: And all wandring Pains in any Part whatsoever, which are in some Persons the Forerunner of a fixed Rheumatism, in others the Gout, (mistaken many times under the Notion of Scorbutick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, having wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, that before taking it could neither sit, stand, nor lie at Ease, but were in intollerable Pain Night and Day, who in taking but 3 or 4 Doses, were absolutely freed from their present Pain, and by a short Continuance of the Course, recovered to perfect Health again. As for any Belchings, or Hiccups proceeding from Wind, or in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on as the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known; it is intended chiefly for the Good of Country People, that live remote from Physicians, and the poorer Sort in Town, is therefore sold but for 3 s. a Bottle, with Directions, at Mr. Ward's Toyshop, at the Peacock, next the Swan Tavern against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London.
